ART CLUB

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY - Susan Savelle, ACTIVITY CHAIRMAN - Janice Jones, PROMOTION CHAIRMAN - Cathy Everette, Keith Guillory, Neil Jordan, Vickey Harvey, Pam Nance, Gloria Watts, Debra Pierce, Nell Wimer, Suan Myers, Gayle Hardin

Our club was born this year because we felt that ECJC, to keep abreast of the times, needed a cultural/artistic organization for the promotion of interest in the arts. We want to give the non-artistic person a general view of art, as it pertains to everyday life. Our efforts can be seen in school exhibits and activities with a special emphasis on expanding the appreciation of the importance of art.

ROTC came new to our campus,
extended to us from MSU.
The program has grown rapidly, received excellent ratings, and
reached out to campus ladies, too.

ROTC spanned many activities
from drills to military balls, and brought artillery and the Green Berets to our campus.

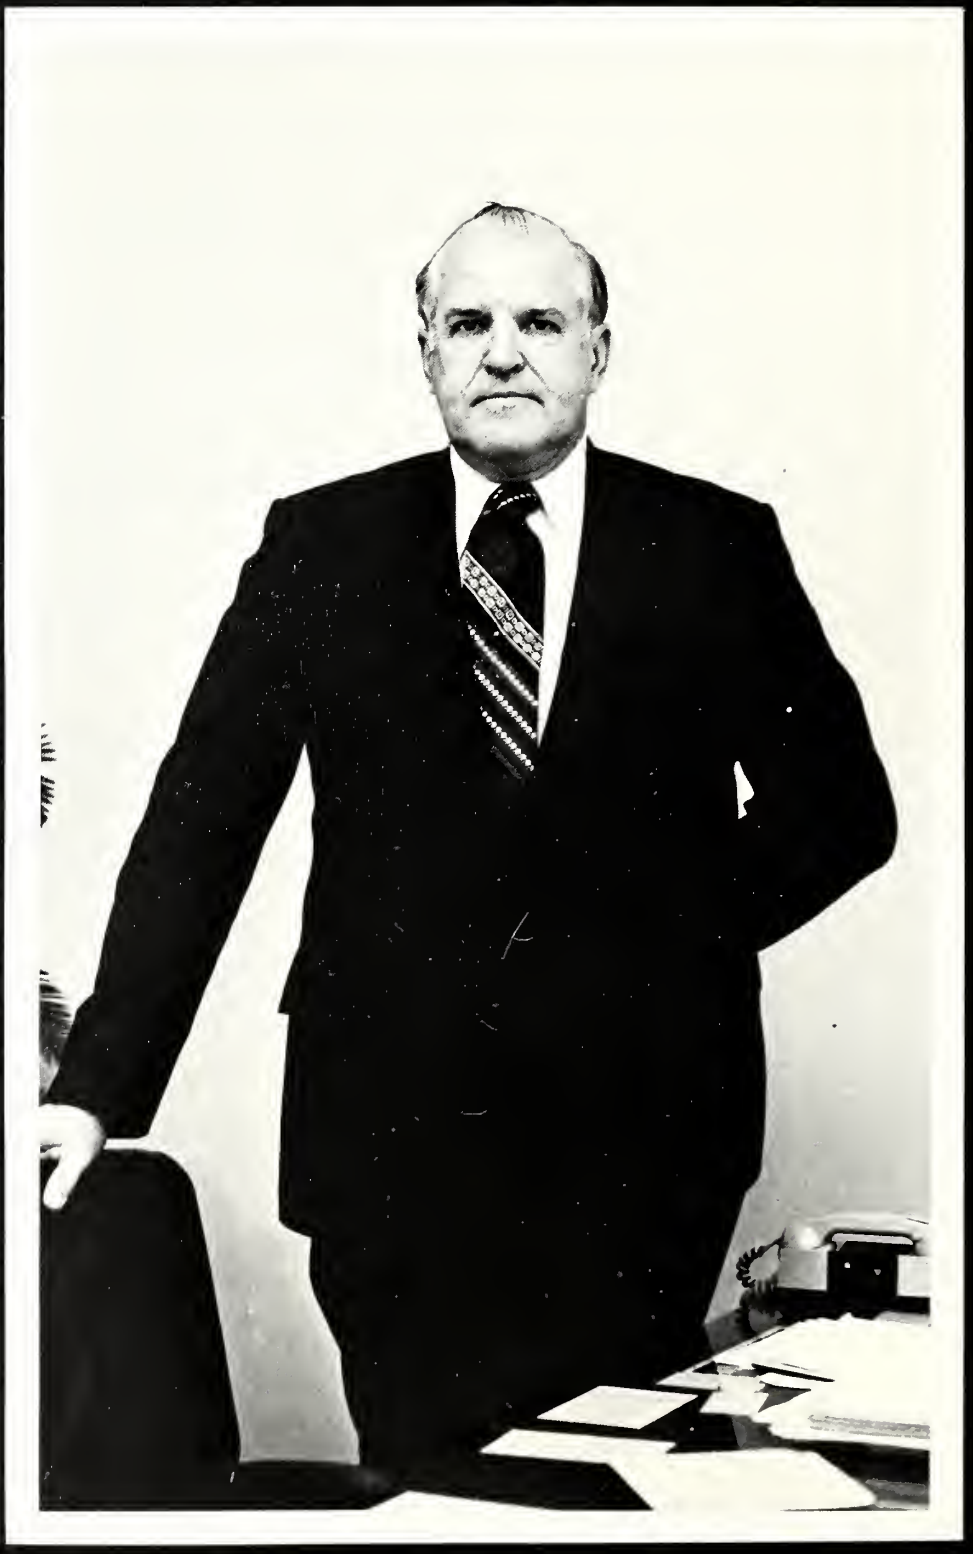
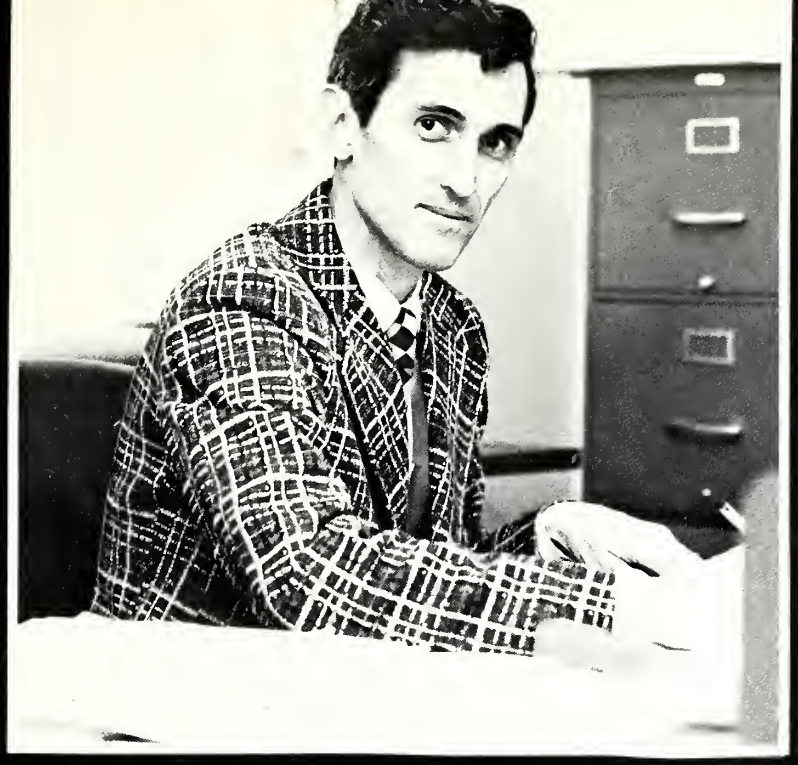
ROTC - new, different and welcome.

DR. CHARLES V. WRIGHT PRESIDENT, EAST CENTRAL JUNIOR COLLEGE



1973-74 marks Dr. Wright's 7th year as President of E.C.J.C., it has been not only an eventful one but a progressive one under Dr. Wright's capable leadership. 1973-74 saw the opening of the cosmetology and the ROTC program at E.C.J.C., and the expansion of a number of other programs. The latest and biggest project of the year began with the demolition of the old classroom building to make room for a new classroom complex. Despite the demands made on him as president of E.C.J.C., Dr. Wright still finds time to spend with his family, Joann (a sophomore at Decatur High School), David (a graduating senior at Southern), and Charles (a senior medical student.)



B. L. Griffin serves as THE BUSINESS MANAGER and has charge of all the college's finances. He supervises the bookstore, is responsible for meal tickets, student housing and sale of tickets to athletic events.

THE ACADEMIC DEAN at E. C. J. C. is Dr. Brad Tucker. Dr. Tucker approves the graduating list, is a member of the discipline committee, and assists in class scheduling and assignment. He is also dean of faculty and advises them in all areas.

Denver Brackeen is THE DEAN OF STUDENTS and he is responsible for co-ordinating all student activities. He is also responsible for food services, student labor, and student loans at E. C. J. C.

E.C.J.C.'s REGISTRAR is Mr. Frank Rives. Mr. Rives issues grades, maintains records and is responsible for student attendance. He also supervises registration and forwards transcripts for students.

Mr. O. L. Newell is VOCATIONAL DIRECTOR for E.C.J.C.'s Vocational Technical Programs. He co-ordinates the vocational classes and is responsible for recruiting of new students.

THE GUIDANCE COUNSELOR at East Central is Mr. Raymond McMullan. He assists students in all phases of college life and is especially helpful in arranging their course of work and schedules.

A campus, no matter how large or small, cannot survive solely by the aid of its faculty and advisors. There are many other people who help maintain our campus and keep it running as it should. We would like to thank Mr. Lesley Langham and Mr. Sam King for keeping our campus under control at night as well as during the day. We would also like to mention the Agriculture program for 1973-74. Plant and animal sciences, and soils were taught by part-time instructors this year. We hope in the future to have a complete Agriculture program.

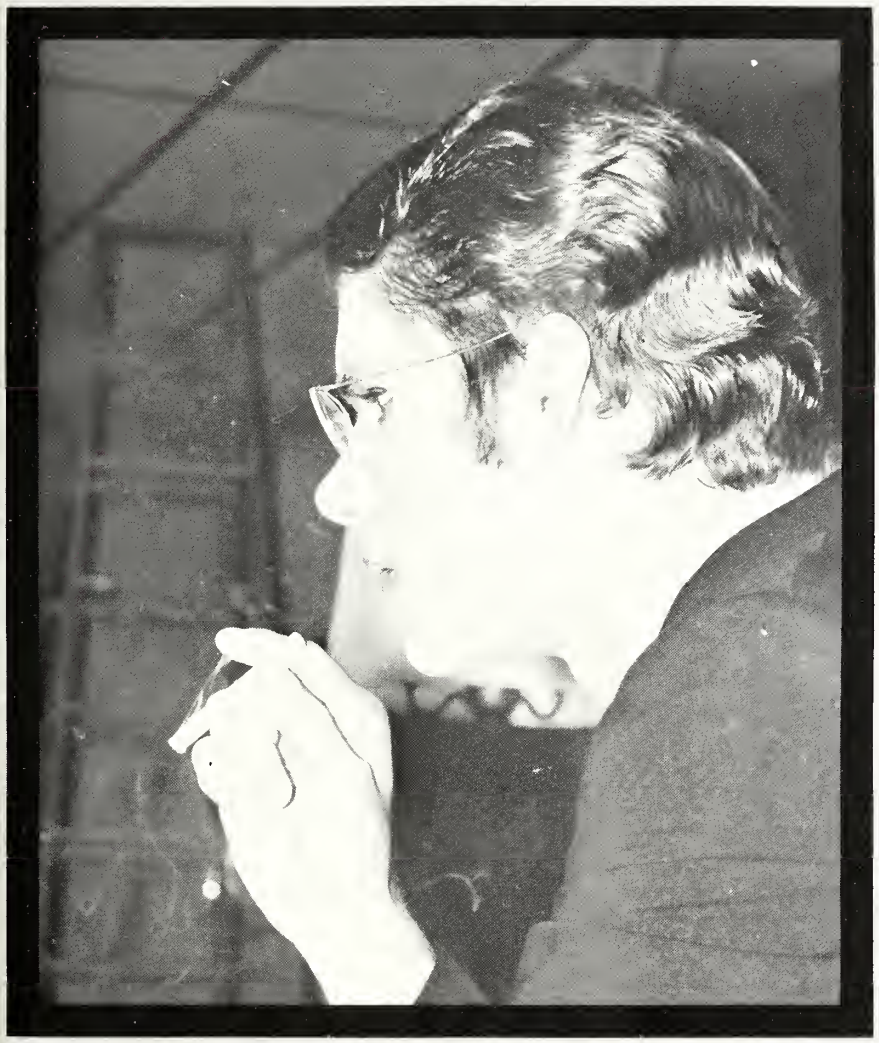
ECJC'S FIRST DINNER THEATRE



CAMELOT

Bruce Peterson's production of CAMELOT ran five nights to packed houses. The main characters - Jimmy Gaines as King Arthur, Jane Hollingsworth as Queen Guenevere, and Jack Thames as Lancelot - were excellent. Outstanding in supporting roles were Tom Carson as Mordred, Junior Williams as King Pellinore, Patsy Muse as Morgan LeFay, and Phil Broadhead as Merlin. The minor characters, dancers, chorus, orchestra, and backstage helpers all contributed to make CAMELOT a success in every sense of the word.

"Don't let it be forgot
That once there was a spot,
For one brief shining moment
That was known as CAMELOT!"

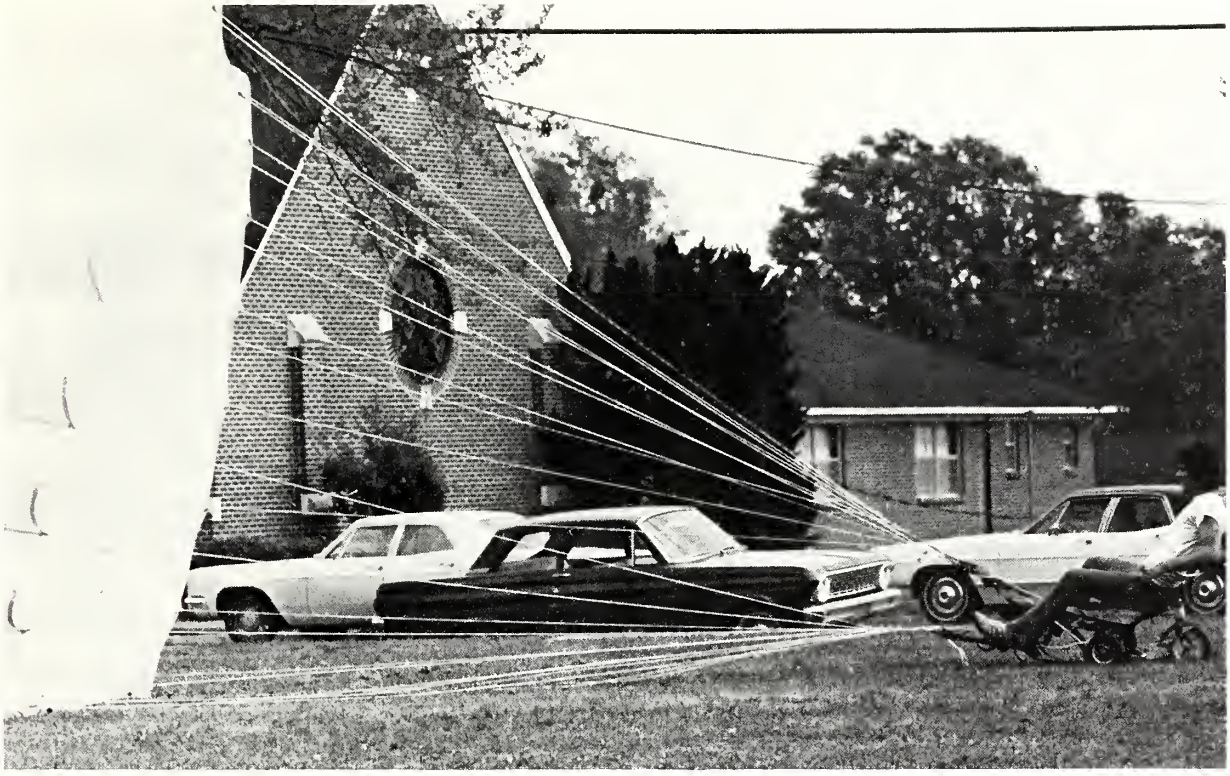
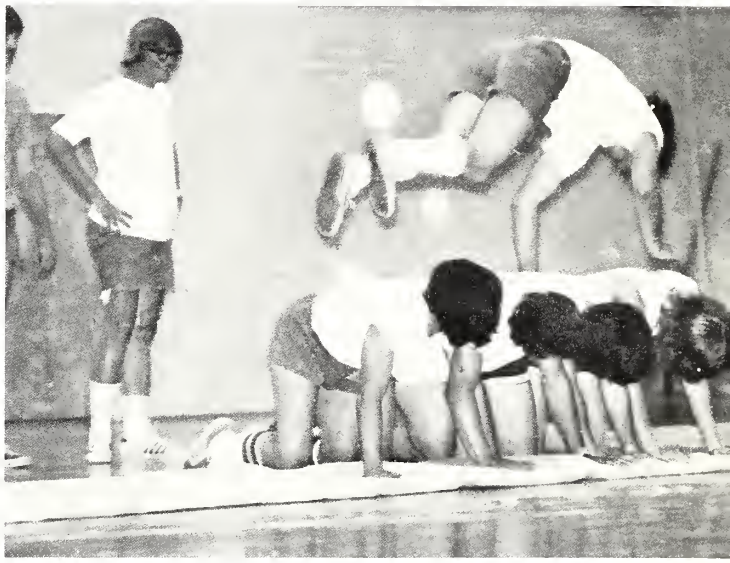
INTRAMURALS AND OTHER FUN

Intramural sports opened up opportunities for all EC students to play volleyball, softball, basketball and ping pong, complete with tournaments and championships.





The old gym was open for fun at the ping pong tables, billiards, basketball, tumbling and such. Bicycles sprang up like mushrooms and the tennis courts stayed busy.
